

The Lakota Summer Jazz Clinic

For 7th, 8th and 9th Grade Instrumentalists (2008-09)

June 23-27 * 9am-Noon

Lakota West High School

Concert Friday at 7:00pm in the Lakota West Theater

The Lakota Summer Jazz Clinic is a summer jazz experience catered to the needs of the rising stars of jazz! This musical experience will not only share information about jazz styles and improvisation, but can give each student an opportunity to develop self-confidence and gain skills that are both personally valuable and meaningful. The clinic is intended for students that will be in grades 7, 8 or 9 for the 2008-09 school year.

The Lakota Summer Jazz Clinic is led by Mr. Todd Hartman (trumpet instructor), Mr. Drews Mitchell (rhythm section instructor), Mr. Brian Botdorf (trombone instructor) and Mr. Bill Burns (saxophone instructor). Their commitment to excellence and their desire to help students to grow into their greatest potential is at the heart of the instruction that will be provided. Students will work in both big band and sectional rehearsals in order to maximize instruction. The students will have the chance to show our community what they've learned by performing a free concert on Friday, June 27 at 7:00pm in the Lakota West Theater. Creating an atmosphere that is fun, exciting and educational is a major part of the instruction and the concert that week.
